

Mark Saunders

Record producer, mixer, remixer, programmer & writer

Mark Saunders is a multi-platinum, English record producer who has worked with some of the most influential artists and writers of the 21st century. Suffice to say Mark has played an instrumental role in the production & mixing of seminal albums such as Neneh Cherry's 'Raw like Sushi', Tricky's 'Maxinquaye', The Cure's 'Wish' & recently the Shiny Toy Guns 'We are pilots'. His unique understanding of rock music, electronic dance floor etiquette and everything in between has meant his career has been remarkably diverse. Mark relocated to New York a decade ago and currently works from his state of the art facility overlooking the Manhattan skyline.

Mark Saunders: Biography - Feb 2007

So who is this mythical figure with the golden touch? Asked how he qualifies his work he contemplates..

'my only ambition has been to engrave my name at the feet of great men and in the service of grand ideas' tea anyone?

Mark's music career started in 1984 as an assistant at West Side Studios, London. Besides brewing copious amounts of tea, Mark learned much from the studio owners Clive Langer and Alan Winstanley, who had great success producing Madness, Dexy's Midnight Runners, Lloyd Cole & the Commotions, Elvis Costello and later Bush.

First rung o' the ladder

In 1985, Mark got his first engineering credit on David Bowie & Mick Jagger's "Dancing In The Street". A year later, he became a freelance engineer and was discovered by Rhythm King, a label at the forefront of the British dance music. Working on a couple of Bomb The Bass mixes led to the band's founder, Tim Simenon, asking Mark to co-produce Neneh Cherry's "Buffalo Stance".

producer/mixer

The success of "Buffalo Stance" and Neneh's "Raw Like Sushi" album resulted in a flood of pop/dance work for acts including Erasure, Depeche Mode, Lisa Stansfield & Yaz. Robert Smith from The Cure, employed Mark's radio friendly skills to mix all singles from the album Disintegration. One of these "Lovesong" is The Cure's highest charting single peaking #2 in the Billboard Top 100.

The Cure mixes broadened musical horizons. Work with Ian McCulloch, The Mission (UK), The Farm, The Heart Throbs, Texas & The Sugarcubes followed. With an ear to the dance floor, Mark was also still making time for pop/dance remixes for the likes of The Human League, Mory Kante, Wang Chung, London Beat, and Jean Paul Gaultier. More work with The Cure on the albums "Wish" and "Mixed Up" would later lead to a Cure fan, Tricky, asking Mark to co-produce, program and mix his critically acclaimed debut album "Maxinquaye". This in turn led to Tricky fans, Cyndi Lauper, John Lydon, David Byrne & Cathy Dennis hiring Mark to work on their albums.

Composer

In the late nineties, Mark took a step back from the record business to spend more time with his family. Still in music though, he side stepped into writing and producing music for TV advertising. Some of his work in this area can be seen at www.tothebeat.com. Mark still made time for a few mixes for David Byrne, Marilyn Manson, Erasure, Jim White and The Mavis's.

more recently

In 2003, Mark upgraded to a 5.1 speaker system and took on the challenge of mixing music in surround - a format he loves! He has already remixed 5.1 tracks for David Byrne, The Cure, Marilyn Manson and Japanese modern classical composer Izumi Kuremoto under the Beat360 imprint.

Now Mark is back making records again and has recently mixed an album for the Atlantic Records band Love Arcade, co-produced/mixed 'We are pilots' by Shiny toy Guns for Universal and is writing with award winning songwriter Cathy Dennis.

Mark is currently negotiating several six figure publishing deals for his no holds barred account of a life amongst the stars.
